

Android P.I. - Situational Barks

In Steel Tips, tensions are high as androids and humans get used to living with each other. Inspired by the old detective shows on Earth, our Android Private Investigator adopts the styles, lingo, and mannerisms of his favorite, fictional detectives to solve mostly petty crimes, often to the confusion of those around him. When a young human girl asks for his aid, our protagonist is sucked down the rabbit hole of a murder most human!

Scenario: Our character investigates an elaborate crime scene (dead body, evidence) with curious onlookers
